

Dear recipient,

Avangar Technologies announces the beginning of a new unprecedented global employment campaign.

Due to company's exploding growth Avangar is expanding business to the European region.

During last employment campaign over 1500 people worldwide took part in Avangar's business and more than half of them are currently employed by the company. And now we are offering you one more opportunity to earn extra money working with Avangar Technologies.

We are looking for honest, responsible, hard-working people that can dedicate 2-4 hours of their time per day and earn extra £300-500 weekly. All offered positions are currently part-time and give you a chance to work mainly from home.
